Good morning all

Please find attached the agenda for the Work and Thrive Annual Review meeting next Thursday (14th March).

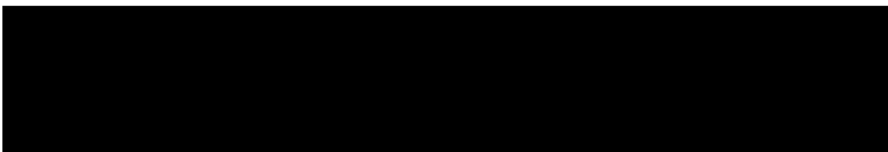

The session will be partner-led with a range of partners presentations on key programmes, achievements to date, and input from beneficiaries. We are also keen to gather your views on emerging issues and ensure we are focusing on key areas over the next delivery year. [REDACTED] the [REDACTED] for a [REDACTED] we will be there as guest speaker to introduce the session, and he will be announcing our new Chair of the Partnership.

I'd appreciate it if you confirm or decline the meeting request as soon as possible, as this will help in planning and logistics. Capacity is limited, so the sooner the better!

The City Library is central and I'd recommend public transport as the best option, where possible. Failing that, there are a lot of parking options nearby.

Any questions, please let me know.

Cheers

Good afternoon everyone

Recently, the Work and Thrive Newcastle Partnership launched our new offer, website, and Employment Plan – Good Work For All.

As well as regular meetings of our groups, the Partnership committed to meet for an annual review in the Spring of each year to reflect on our performance, identify successes and key issues, and outline areas for further improvement to ensure we continue to deliver against our priorities.

We would like to invite you to the first of these annual reviews at the City Library.

An agenda will be sent closer to the date. Refreshments and a buffet lunch will be provided, along with the opportunity to network at the end.

We look forward to seeing you all then.

Cheers
