If you have not been the [REDACTED] it is worth it - ordered by tone too which is very pleasing!

Anyway...

Here is a link to info and details on all the CLLD projects - if you would like info on a specific one please let me know.

I have also had a look at the [REDACTED] Data and there are [REDACTED] projects that have registered people who have indicated they have a criminal conviction. I will email the projects and include you [REDACTED] in the message by way of introduction.

Thanks

Hello [REDACTED]

I went to my very favourite Charity Shop - Red Cross at the Grainger market and bought all the knitwear! Including a Whistles and Boden jumper - both cashmere and hand wash only but hey it was for charity!

I completely forgot to ask you if you would be interested in linking in with my colleague [REDACTED] (who I was speak to at the Civic before I came to see you so I really should have remembered) and representatives of other employability partners who are working directly with employers.

Some info below.. [REDACTED] contact info is there too if you want to have a chat about the group in advance.

Thanks

Dear Colleague,

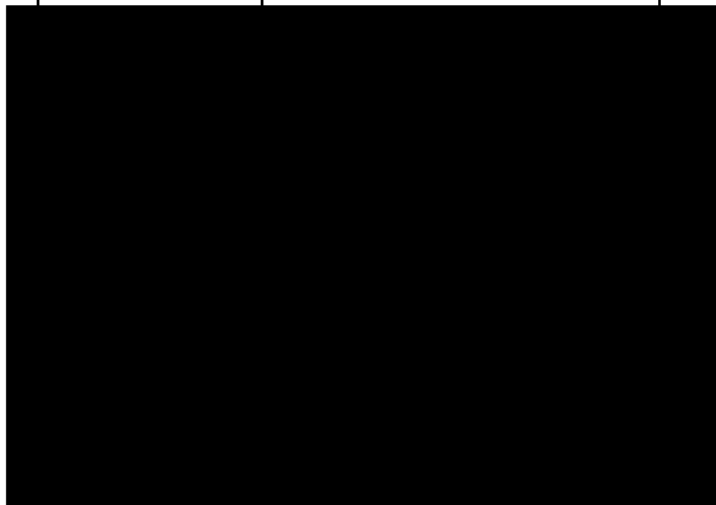

I would like to invite you to join an Employer Engagement Forum. This is an experiment that I thought would be worth a try!

I see it as an informal group of people who are responsible for engaging with employers in Newcastle as part of services to help job seekers into employment. Probably meeting roughly quarterly. The purpose of getting together is, as far as possible given inevitable competition between providers, to:

- share information on employer engagement across employability providers in the city
- share intelligence arising from employers about recruitment trends, hard to fill vacancies etc
- try to reduce duplication of contact with employers
- identify any gaps where employers are not being fully engaged
- identify potential areas and issues for collaboration

Membership is open, but likely to initially include the following organisations and people:

Organisation	Name(s)
--------------	---------

If you think there is anyone missing from this list, or others who would be better placed to attend, please let me know.

I propose the first meeting to be 14.00 - 15.30 on Monday 13th December via Teams. I know this date/time won't suit everyone, but hopefully will work for enough of you to be worthwhile. I will follow this email up with a calendar invite.

I hope you agree that this will be worthwhile and look forward to seeing you then. I envisage the first meeting will mainly focus on introductions and agreeing the role of the group, but if there is anything specific that you would like to put on the agenda, please let me know.
