Hi [REDACTED]

That is absolutely fine. I think that everyone's main responsibility and loyalty lies with their own organisation, staff and the community they serve. Therefore, you need to do what you feel is best for your organisation. I wish we had more monies in the pot...

Cheers,

Just [REDACTED]

These are not organisations I know well, nor in a rare case who I esteem particularly, (each to their own and not to be shared!)

I wouldn't feel comfortable in a 'partnership of the unknowns', when collective performance dictates the success of the contract, so I will step aside in this instance.

Thank you for everything you are trying to do, it is really appreciated.
