Hi [REDACTED]

I had a catch up with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and we all agree that you can provide a justification for the lack of certification (where evidence was sent to you and you didn't get an opportunity to physically see it). You could perhaps adapt the template for justification for lack of certification that we've created when face to face delivery was restricted. Please mention briefly participant's circumstances and why it was impossible to see the evidence in person.

In those cases, do not stamp the evidence, just provide a justification and we'll accept it.

Hope that's okay,

Subject: Certifying non original documents?

H [REDACTED]

I am going to SAVE your answer to this, as I have asked you before at least once! What is the sentence I need to write on docs which are genuine but not originals? In this instance, the partial POA that you approved by email query for [REDACTED], where it is just a half photo of the document that I received, but which does include the essentials (thankfully). And does it also need a justification, or not, because it is the right category of doc?

Thank you – I have quite a backlog of bits to upload...
