Hi [REDACTED]

We assumed that [REDACTED] proof of address would be insinuated, as our [REDACTED] has to check their address and NINO to ensure we are talking about the same claimant. Usually, he replies to the email with details of their economic status and has a line to state that this is their correct address. I assume that this has just been missed off on this occasion.

Hopefully this will satisfy Jack's proof of address even in the absence of this sentence! Please let me know your thoughts,

[REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED], I can see you asked the [REDACTED] to confirm the address but they didn't! Just employment status....can you convince me to accept it!? Or get it confirmed? Thanks
