Yeah, you should exit them before you record the result.

Yay! And a question I've before – do we EXIT them before we record the result, or the other way round?! Thank you

Hi [REDACTED]

Good news, you don't need to evidence this and I will not 'alert' you for the lack of thereof. While employed participants are not our target group, you can still support them especially if they are in unstable employment etc. We don't mind if you have only a couple of employed participants but this must be an exception rather than a norm.

Hope this helps,

Hi [REDACTED]

We are working with a chap who is under employed, but who IS employed. This is an option on the Reg Form tick boxes (box 3), but in the evidence section it doesn't make provision for this – you can only be unemployed or inactive. How do we evidence this?!

Thank you
