Dear All,

Just a quick email to let you know that you may be contacted by evaluators from a company called [REDACTED]. They have been procured to carry out a final evaluation of the whole CLLD programme.

Those of you who have been using [REDACTED] (projects that directly support individuals) and attended our [REDACTED] event last week, have already met [REDACTED] (who leads on the evaluation work) and her colleague [REDACTED]. I'm not sure if it will be one of them contacting you or any of their research colleagues. You may be contacted this side of Christmas or soon after the New Year.

Please be open and honest – we think about it as a great opportunity to learn and understand things better in the context on any future programme.

Any questions, please let me know.

Cheers,
[REDACTED]
