Wonderful news!! We both really enjoyed the group meeting - it felt like the questions asked in advance really lent themselves to us being able to give the right sort of information about our activity.

I would need some guidance as to how much to apply for, in terms both of which match elements you would recognise or not, and also any max thresholds of funding, as well as the “spend-by” imperatives.

I look forward to the paperwork to follow.

Thank you!

Thank you for attending the [REDACTED] meeting this morning - I know virtual meetings are not easy at the best of times!

I am however, emailing with good news, the [REDACTED] would like us to invite you to prepare a full application for funding from CLLD. I need to do a little bit of work to get the application pack ready as I have noticed a couple of the questions are no longer required and the budget forms need editing, but I hope to complete this today or tomorrow at the latest to share them with you.

If you could then aim to prepare a first draft of the application for the end of the month, we could hopefully get a formal decision made on the funding in March which if successful could allow for an April start (assuming staffing in place already as discussed this morning).

Hope that's ok and any questions please let me know?

Will be back in touch with the forms asap
